

NEWS RELEASE

EDSALL CLASS VETERANS ASSOCIATION INC
A 501(C)3 CHARITY

HANDS-ON HISTORY!

THE LAST OF THE TEXAS ESCORTS! Of all the Destroyer Escorts built in Texas shipyards during World War 2, only one remains in North America! She is the USS Stewart DE-238, one of 85 Edsall Class ships.

Get your hands on an enduring part of American history! Help restore the Navy ships at the AMERICAN UNDERSEA WARFARE CENTER, Seawolf Park, Galveston Texas.

Volunteers are now being accepted to help in the restoration of the USS Stewart DE-238 and the USS Cavalla SS-244.

NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!

A willingness to help will give you a chance to spend time on the vessels that served America from World War 2, through the Vietnam conflict!

SIGN UP NOW for the Nov. 12 through Nov. 18th. FALL Work Week! Sign up for a few days or the whole week. We have the best free food in the restoration fleet, and you can berth in an historic ship free! Your travel (auto, airline, train, bus, etc.) meal expenses and any hotel/motel expenses are deductible as a charitable donation on your 2013 income taxes (in 2014).

For additional information or to sign-on, contact:

Mac Christy ENC USN (RET)
841 Thomas Rd.
Pomona KS 66076
785-255-4368
machief@hughes.net

This Work Week is sponsored by the EDSALL CLASS VETERANS ASSOCIATION INC; www.edsallclassveterans.org